Dear Guest,

After much deliberation, and, I hasten to add, many bottles consumed all in the process of research, we are delighted to present to you our wine list, in its new exciting format, whereby we take you around the globe with all of the main grape varieties, with a few ‘left field’ grapes that we encountered along the way.

The array of wines that we have chosen for you is designed to both compliment and enhance the imaginative cuisine created by our Head Chef and his kitchen team. We have selected a range of wines to suit every guest and each occasion.

Do please feel free to engage with our staff, they all share our great passion for great service, food and wine.

A Votré Santé

Mark & Clare Oglesby

“Wine is poetry in a bottle.”

- Clifton Fadiman
33. Unoaked Chardonnay, Our Town Hall, Franschhoek Cellar, South Africa
   This unoaked wine has fresh tropical and citrus fruit aromas. On the palate there are tropical fruit, marmalade and mango flavours as well as zesty lemon and lime.

34. Picpoul de Pinet, Cuvee Prestige, Languedoc, France
   Refreshing, citrus-laced white wine. Beautifully fresh and brimming with crisp green fruit and lime.

35. Sauvignon Blanc, Domaine de Montmarin, France
   Full of fresh green fruit and tropical citrus characters, crunchy acidity and a generous, lingering finish.

36. Pinot Gris, Villa Wolf, Ernst Loosen, Pfalz, Germany
   Full-bodied, dry style with refreshing, unoaked fruit and a crackling texture

37. Viognier, ‘Secretes’ Viu Manent, Chile
   Bold exotic stone fruit flavour and delicate white flowers. This is a white with structure and tremendous personality from vines with an average age of 14 years.

38. Cune White Rioja, Barrel Fermented, Rioja, Spain
   Richly fruited with a terrific line of fresh, natural acidity. Full of fresh citrus and toasty oak, with intense white stone fruit flavours.

39. Tenimenti Ca Bianca Gavi, Piedmont, Italy
   Fine and fragrant bouquet with notes of white flowers and fruit aromas of pear and citrus.

40. Riesling, Esk Valley, Marlborough, New Zealand
   Produced from Marlborough grown grapes and bursting with aromatic lime, exotic fruit and clean refreshing acidity.

41. Cotes de Rhone Blanc, Colombo et Fille, Rhone Valley, France
   Intense, focused and concentrated bouquet of beautiful melon, ripe peach and pear fruit, with delicate blossom notes.

42. Albarino, Pazos de Lusco, Spain
   Powerful nose with aromas of fresh herbs, tropical fruits and floral tones. Dry palate with citric notes of grapefruit & pineapple giving great liveliness.

43. Macon Uchizy, Cave Talmard, France
   The wine is unoaked, medium bodied, has lovely citrus/ripe pear flavours and a long, crisp finish. The attack in the mouth is full, rich and fruity.
44. Gewurtztraminer, Joseph Cattin, Alsace, France
   The perfect partner for spicy cuisine, loaded with exotic fruit and rose petal flavours, with a spicy, long lasting finish.

45. Robert Oatley Signature Series Margaret River Chardonnay
   A bright, mid-weight, white peach-accented, gently oaked wine grown on selected sites across Australia’s highest performing Chardonnay region.

46. Petit Chablis ‘Vibrant’ La Chablisienne, France
   Crunchy acidity with expressive citrus and green fruit. Lip-smacking and clean, perfect for seafood, eaten outside on a warm evening.

47. Pinot Grigio San Angelo, Castello Banfi, Toscana, Italy
   Fresh bouquet with notes of pear, peach, anise and honey. Taste: Fruity and crisp, very refreshing.

48. Sancerre, Domaine Chatelain Selection, Loire, France
   Intensely aromatic with characteristic flint and blackcurrant flowers and a lively fresh citrus and green fruit character.

49. Montagny Premier Cru ‘La Grande Roche’ Louis Latour, France
   Full in the mouth with notes of almond, apricot and pepper, the finish is fresh with a hint of mint.

50. Sauvignon Blanc, Cloudy Bay, New Zealand
   Vibrant, pure and delicious. The benchmark New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc.

51. Malbec Rosé, Viu Manent, Chile
   This is a vibrant, full-flavoured dry rose, crafted from the spicy Malbec grape.

52. Whispering Angel Rosé, Chateau d’Esclans, France
   This grown-up rose is skilfully crafted by Sasha Lichine from Chateau Prieure Lichine in Margaux. Elegant and full of subtle charm and juicy red fruit, nestled cosily amongst some beautiful spice and dried herb notes.
Red Wines

53. Tempranillo, Masia J, La Mancha, Spain
   Warm, forward, soft red fruit and herbs with a touch of spice. Well balanced.
   £24.00

54. ‘Old Museum’ Merlot, Franschhoek Cellar, South Africa
   12 months ageing in oak casks before bottling adds complexity and a dusting of vanilla to the soft red cherry and plum flavours.
   £29.00

55. Pinot Noir, Cielo, Italy
   A bright Pinot Noir, unique and chic. Aromas of raspberry and huckleberry.
   Fruit forward and soft tannins.
   £29.00

56. Cabernet-Merlot, Helmsman, Central Ranges, Australia
   Classically structured, this is a tightly bound, elegant yet powerful red wine with tremendous power on the finish.
   £29.00

57. Primitivo di Manduria, Magnifico Rosso Fuoco, Puglia, Italy
   Inky and full-bodied, with great tannic, alcoholic and acidic structure balanced by luscious, fresh dark fruits.
   £35.00

58. Col di Sasso, Toscana IGT, Castello Banfi, Tuscany, Italy
   Intense ruby-red in colour with notes of cherries and sweet spice. Bold and rich yet balanced by soft, smooth tannins that are supported by black fruits and subtle hints of smokiness.
   £35.00

59. Cotes de Rhone Rouge, Colombo et Fille, Rhone, France
   Crunchy, bright, seductively fruity wine, packed with red fruit characters, well-rounded tannins and balanced acidity.
   £38.00

60. Aruma Malbec, Lafite, Bodegas Caro, Argentina
   Impressive nose of juicy red and blackberry fruit with a touch of chocolate and game.
   Enhanced on the palate, very smooth, almost velvety black forest fruit.
   £40.00

61. Chateau Musar Jeaune, Lebanon
   Lovely, vibrant red and blackcurrant fruits with added raspberries and cherries.
   Easy drinking, juicy style.
   £41.00

62. Cabernet Sauvignon, Robert Oatley, Margaret River, Australia
   A full-flavoured yet finely structured Cabernet of great appeal: blackberries, dried leaves and fine gravelly tannin, reflect an outstanding year.
   £41.00

63. Shiraz/Grenache, Hancock & Hancock, McLaren Vale, Australia
   Shiraz brings its intense purple fruit and hallmark peppery spice, while the 25 percent Grenache adds a fragrant, floral note and a sprinkling of spice.
   £42.00
Red Wines

64. Fleurie, Chateau de Fleurie, Domaine Jean Loron, Beaujolais, France
This is a classic Fleurie with notes of cherry, blackcurrant and hints of rose petal with a velvety, fresh finish.

£45.00

65. Chateau Guinot, St Emilion Grand Cru, France
Developed plum and Bramble nose with subtle oak and spice. Smooth texture on the palate with a core of currant, bilberries fused with Christmas cake fruits and added spice.

£45.00

66. Rioja Reserva, Cune, Rioja, Spain
Two years in American and French oak casks give lovely complexity and smooth tannins along with enticing bramble and sweet spice aromas.

£46.00
Magnum £86.00

67. Grand Reserve Carmenere, Los Vascos, Domaines Barons de Rothschild (Lafite), Chile
Silky texture with ripe black raspberries and damson combine with well balanced acidity that gives the wine finesse and flows onto a long satisfying finish.

£48.00

68. Ripasso Valpolicella Classico, Campagnola, Italy
Deep ruby red in color. Rich spicy perfumes and black pepper notes with a hint of raisins. Full body balanced taste, very intense and spicy with sweet cherry flavours.

£49.00

69. Chateau Les Cruzelles, Lalande de Pomerol, Bordeaux, France
Bright, red cherry with added bilberries on the nose. More Autumn berries with brambles fused with black cherries on the finish.

£75.00

70. Nuits-St-Georges Vielles Vignes, Mason Roche de Bellene, Burgundy, France
This really is an appealing wine, with a rich fruit profile and long savoury finish, that should develop even further in bottle.

£81.00

Connoisseur White Wines

76. Chablis Grand Cru ‘Vaudésir’, Domaine Seguinot Bordet, Burgundy, France 2016
£98.00

Vaudésir is the more expressive and showy of Jean-François’s grand crus, with a little more oak -10 months in barrel. Grand cru Chablis is one of the world’s best value wines, and Bordet’s Vaudésir is a sublime example. Pronounced peach and stone fruit on the nose, with powerful mineral notes, and ripe, intense citrus. The palate is expressive and weighty, at the same time vibrant and deft of touch. Great definition, and perfectly balanced.

77. Chassagne Monrachet Premier Cru, Les Chenevottes, Domaine Gerard Thomas 2016
Burgundy, France
£99.00

A very small holding of just 0.32 hectares of vines planted between 1975 and 1985, with some replanting in 2016. The slope is mild with good exposure creating wines that are complex with beautiful weight and a lingering finish. Forward nose, fresh citrus, white stone fruits and added peaches. Gorgeous silky texture, multi-layered, creamy complexity with honey and exotic fruits on the palate. Plenty of direction and focus throughout. Subtle spice and oak underneath a core of savoury, ripe stone fruits with exotic overtones. Wonderful energy and length.

78. Meursault En L’Ormeau Yves Boyer Martenot, Burgundy 2015
France
£105.00

Set to the east of Meursault, this is a single plot of just 0.64 hectares situated next to Les Magny. Some vines date back to 1924, and have rooted deep into the clay soil. As a result, the soil richness allows the wine to develop fantastic freshness with beautiful balance. Richer, fatter more concentrated nose, with exotic fruit and wild honey. Creamy, buttery style on the palate with a tropical and citrus core, coated in wild honey and a squeeze of mandarin orange. Impressive depth and complexity integrated with white pepper minerality and fresh acidity. Touch of apricots with added spice on a generous, long finish.

79. Baron de L Pouilly Fume, Patrick de Ladoucette 2015
France
£159.00

The vineyards of de Ladoucette are the largest and the most famous vineyards of Pouilly Fume and they have been owned by the Comte Lafond and de Ladoucette families since 1787 when Comte Lafond purchased the estate from the illegitimate daughter of the French king, Louis XV. The estate is currently owned by Baron Patrick de Ladoucette, a descendant of the Comte Lafond. The colour is pale gold with green tints. The nose is delicate with ripe fruit such as pear and white peach. It also has complex notes of beeswax, vanilla and flint. The mouth has a fresh fruity beginning, is fleshy and robust, and has good structure. It is balanced between a fruity roundness and mineral firmness. A very long finish.

80. Sauvignon Blanc, Gaja Alteni di Brassica Tuscany 2016
Italy
£198.00

The delightful 2015 Langhe Alteni di Brassica is a pure expression of Sauvignon Blanc. This is the only white wine in Angelo Gaja's line that does not complete malolactic fermentation. The bouquet is exuberant and bright with green notes of salvia, wild oregano and white pepper. Those sharper tones are followed by bright layers of tropical fruit and zesty citrus. Drying mineral notes give sharp contours to the overall effect.
Connoisseur Red Wines

81. Chateau Batailley, Grand Cru Classe Pauillac, Bordeaux 2011 France
   £99.00
   The 2014 Batailley has an attractive bouquet, lilting scents of redcurrant and raspberry coulis, quite floral and very precise. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannin, good depth and body, rounded for Batailley and less austere than usual. It feels closed towards the finish, tight-lipped, but there is certainly grip and presence here.

82. Vosne Romanee Vieilles Vignes Roche de Bellene, Burgundy 2014 France
   £108.00
   Located in Burgundy's Cote de Beaune, the estate is working towards full biodynamic status and currently they use a number of natural and sustainable processes to produce their wines. Nicolas Potel is one of the most exciting ‘new generation’ winemakers in Burgundy producing exceptional vintages year after year. Charming fused red and black fruits with hints of floral tones on the nose. Seductive, concentrated nose that has wonderful complexity and depth. Black fruits core with damson and a slightly meatier style. Wonderful harmony and balance between the luscious fruit and juicy, vibrant acidity.

83. Amarone della Valpolicella Classico, Zenato 2013 Italy
   £112.00
   Considered the ‘King of Veronese Wines’, Amarone is made from grapes that have been left to dry on racks, which develops their distinct raisin and dried fruit character, and is responsible for a pretty steep alcohol content. This example is rich and vibrant, full of concentrated fruit and a smoky chocolate and coffee character.

84. Brunello di Montalcino, Castello Banfi 2012 Italy
   £125.00
   Castello Banfi is synonymous with quality. All the estates surrounded by the castle ‘Il Borgo’ are still family owned and are in the capable hands of the third generation with Cristina Mariani-May as well as her cousin, James Mariani. Cristina has been involved with the winery since the early 1990s where her mantra has always been “in the pursuit of excellence”, which has driven Castello Banfi to become one of the most popular and well-respected Italian producers. The flagship wine from Castello Banfi made from 100% Sangiovese grown on the southern hill section of Montalcino. Simply one of the best Italian wines around.

85. Gaja Dagromis Barolo 2015 Italy
   £175.00
   Clean and expressive, both at the nose and at the palate, it opens with pure floral notes of rose petal and elder flowers. Warm spices like black pepper and tobacco give roundness to the bouquet. The palate features a remarkably sweet fruit concentration, with juicy and sweet red and black fruit, such as red cherry, plum, blueberry. The exuberance of the fruit and floral expression is temperate by the good acidity and the silky tannins, leading to a fresh and balanced wine with serious ageing potential and yet inviting in its youth.

“Fan the flame of hilarity with the wing of friendship, and pass the rosy wine.”

– Charles Dickens
